TERRE HAUTE MAN A WOMAN'S VICTIM

She Looted His Jewelry Store, Lured Him to Chicago and Gave Him Fatal Dose of Poison.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 10.—Lured to Chicago by a woman under the pretext that she would return to him stolen jewelry valued at more than $500, and then poisoned by her while en route to Terre Haute Sunday night, is the statement made by Coroner H. H. Leavitt in regard to W. H. Helman, 45 years of age, a well known jeweler of Terre Haute, who died in his room at the Plaza hotel here this morning. The authorities are now endeavoring to locate the woman, who continued on her way south after Helman left the train Sunday night. In a letter left by him to the chief of police Helman charges that the woman attempted to poison him by putting the poison in his coffee in a Chicago restaurant Sunday.

Woman Is a White Slaver.

Helman also gave a description of the jewelry stolen and requested the chief of police to apprehend the woman, saying that she was on her way to New Orleans and would be found at 1229 Rapport street Tuesday morning. He further charged that she was engaged in the white slave traffic and that she had plied her game in Chicago, Memphis and other cities up and down the Mississippi river. The woman stayed in Terre Haute during the holidays and worked in Helman's store. While there, Helman charges in his letter, she stole the jewelry. He followed her to Indianapolis and then to Chicago in an effort to force her to return it. She promised that she would if he would come to Terre Haute with her.

No explanation is made by Helman of why he failed to recover the property, but he went to his room at the hotel about 1:30 o'clock a. m.

Nothing strange was noted, in his manner. That was the last seen of him until hotel attendants found him lying on the floor Monday morning.

Victim Wrote Three Letters.

Three letters were written by Helman, one to the chief of police, one to his wife and one to a tailor, whose shop is in the same building. The first letter to Chief of Police Kotch consisted of a detailed description of the jewelry which the woman had taken and the request that the police apprehend the woman at New Orleans. The remainder of it was:

"She visited me from Christmas until New Year's and stole nearly everything out of my store. She went to Chicago and I found where she was and when she found out that I had discovered her she told me to come there and she would give me the jewelry. When I got there she told me that she was coming back to Terre Haute and would give me the jewelry when we got there.

Gave Him Poison and Robbed Him.

"She tried to poison me in a restaurant there. I caught her trying to put something into my coffee, but she said that she was just going to put the sugar in for me. Coming down on the train she stole between $75 and $85 from me and when she found out that I missed it she admitted that she had it in her stocking and said that she would give it to me when we got to Terre Haute. I want you to arrest her. You can find her on Rapport street. She will arrive there Tuesday morning.

"She is a white slave woman and has worked in Memphis and other towns up and down the Mississippi river. She goes to young girls and tells them that she has jobs for them which will pay from $10 to $25 a day and then puts them in bad houses."

Letter to Sick Wife.

The coroner has opened the letter written to Helman's wife, who is too ill to be told of the tragedy. It was written several days ago from Chicago and states that he is in Chicago trying to recover some jewelry and says that he will see her Tuesday. The last letter, written to the tailor in the same building with Helman, is a brief note, and makes the definite charge that the Salsberry woman poisoned him with some slow poison while in the Chicago restaurant. It evidently is the last one he wrote and he says he is dying.

NO TRACE OF WOMAN.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 10.—No telegram has been received by the New Orleans police asking them to look out for the woman alleged to have poisoned W. H. Helman, in a Chicago restaurant last night, but acting upon the advice contained in the Associated Press dispatches, Inspector O'Connor placed the matter in the hands of the detectives. There is no Rapport street in New Orleans, but the local police came to the conclusion that Rampart street was meant, although they doubt if the number 1229 is correct.

BLACK HAND CASES ARE BROUGHT TO THE BAR

Trial of Fourteen Sicilians of Murder Cult Opens in Toledo.

Toledo, Jan. 10.—The case against fourteen Sicilians, members of the society of the Banana, alleged black hand band of Ohio, was called for trial before Judge R. W. Taylor in the federal court today. With a small army of witnesses, menacing letters and a mass of documentary evidence seized in the homes of the defendants raided last June by postal inspectors, the government expects to prove that the band made Marion, Ohio, the center of widespread black hand operations. Twenty lawyers are engaged in the defense, including J. J. Sullivan, of Cleveland, former United States district attorney. The government's witnesses include federal inspectors and detectives, police officers and Italians, the alleged intended victims, living in Ohio and Indiana. The indictment contains sixteen counts, alleging attempts to extort money from as many Italians by means of threatening letters.

Judge Taylor today quashed the indictments against members of the alleged black hand band called for trial today. A new grand jury will be called at once.

Heavy Selling Orders Cause Slump on New Orleans Exchange.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 10.—Heavy commission house selling caused a marked tendency of the cotton future market to advance following the report of the census bureau today.

Within the hour following the opening selling orders became so great that the market finally broke $2.50 a bale. The May option went to 15.58, a break of 55 points, and March dropped 45 points, going to 15.64. The heavy selling was largely of a realizing character, the orders pouring in from many points through the south. Many holders of cotton were closed out when nothing was forthcoming to keep up their margins and great excitement prevailed around the ring.

SEVENTY-FIVE HORSES SOLD.

The inauguration of the weekly horse market in Fort Wayne Saturday is declared to have been very successful, and a total of seventy-five horses were sold from the barns on Wells street. The sale is conducted by a Detroit concern, and buyers were here from many adjoining towns.

HALLER WOULD TAKE PLACE IF ROGGE RESIGNED

Council Would be Called Upon to Elect a New Vice President.

Democrats who have been howling for the resignation of Gustav F. Rogge, elected president of the city council last Tuesday night over John J. Bauer, the caucus nominee of the party, have been confronted with the assurance that if he does step out of the chair Gottlieb Haller, the vice president, will succeed him and there will be nothing left for the majority to do but elect somebody to take Mr. Haller's place.

This has been looked up by lawyers for both the democrats and the republicans and all agree that Mr. Haller will be, by law, entitled to the seat in event there is a resignation. It is not likely that Mr. Rogge would have resigned in any event. He stated that he was very much surprised when he was elected, that he had nothing to do with bolting the caucus and a resignation would give the lie to this statement.

The new council will meet for its first regular business session tomorrow night, but none of the routine work that will probably come before the body had been filed with the city clerk today.

UNCLE JOE GETS A FALL.

—From the New York Herald.

SUGAR SWINDLERS TO PENITENTIARY

Four Men Convicted of Underweight Frauds Get a Year Each.

CHALLENGE OF THE VERDICT INJURES

Judge Disposed to be Merciful But for Their Attitude.

New York, Jan. 10.—Four former employes of the American Sugar Refining company, convicted of underweighing frauds, were sentenced to one year's imprisonment each by Judge Martin, in the United States circuit court here today. The men sentenced are Thomas Kehoe, Edward A. Boyle, Patrick J. Hennessey and John M. Coyle.

The quartet were checkers on the docks of the sugar company in Williamsburg, where discovery was made that the scales used to weigh sugar imports had been tampered with. The jury convicted Oliver Spitzer, the dock superintendent and the four men sentenced today. There was disagreement over the case of James Bendernagel, the cashier of the refinery, one of the defendants.

Sick Man Shown Leniency.

Spitzer collapsed in court on Saturday when a motion for a new trial for the men was argued and it was found that he would have to undergo a slight operation for an intestinal disorder. For this reason Judge Martin today did not pronounce sentence on him but remanded him until Feb. 1.

Before sentencing the men today the court denied a motion for a new trial.

In sentencing the checkers Judge Martin intimated that he might have shown greater leniency if the men had appealed to the court "for mercy and in a spirit of penitence."

"However," said the court, "such is not their position. They challenge the verdict; they deny their guilt. They take the position that what they did was done voluntarily without orders from higher officers—not that I believe that is the fact but that is their position before the court. Their present attitude compels me to sentence them as evil doers from evil motives."

Judge Martin denied a motion for a stay and the men must at once begin serving their terms. It is expected a motion for a stay pending an appeal for them before the circuit court of apeals will be made.

PITTSBURG IS SUFFERING.

Many Accidents and Much Want Due to Severe Weather.

Pittsburg, Jan. 10.—Deaths, many accidents and suffering in the poorer sections of Greater Pittsburg were reported today as the result of the ten inches of snowfall in the past twenty-seven hours. Promise of relief from zero weather conditions failed to arrive Sunday. Icy pavements caused hourly accidents. Hospitals report many cases of fractures, sprains and bruises.

Curtiss Explains Difference Between His and the Wrights Machines.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 10.—A faultless day barring cloudiness and bringing with it a mere zephyr of a breeze that floated rather than blew up from the sea and over the valley between the snow-capped mountains opened the international aviation meet at Dominquez Junction today and witnessed the competitive trials of aeroplanes in America.

The first flights were not scheduled to be attempted until 1 o'clock. The noise of these sounding like several batteries of machine guns in action was mingled with the comparatively gentle whirr of the engines of the dirigibles.

Aviators Busy Tuning Up.

Scores of French, British and American mechanicians, brought here by the aviators and dirigible pilots, were busy tuning up the delicate mechanisms that drive the nine biplanes and monoplanes that are entered for the contest and big cigar-shaped air craft belonging to Knabenshue. The grandstand, with the tiers of boxes, holds nearly 25,000 people. It was announced that Glenn H. Curtiss would make the first flight today and would be followed probably by Paulhan and certainly Charles K. Hamilton, of New Britain, Conn., and two aviators Paulhan brought from France with him, Miscarol and Maisson. Curtiss said that his flights today would have an important bearing on his patent controversy with the Wrights and in his opinion would end the litigation which all but prevented the holding of the aviation contests.

Curtiss Explains Difference.

"In the arguments of their lawyers the Wrights proved theoretically to Judge Hazel in the federal court of New York that my machines depend on the vertical rudder to maintain equilibrium," said Curtiss. "I will demonstrate by actual flight that they do not. That will end the action for injunction, for the Wrights' patents

JURORS SECURED TO TRY SYRIAN FOR MURDER

A jury was secured in the circuit court about 2 o'clock this afternoon to hear the evidence against Durgham Ferris Rizk, a Syrian charged with the murder of Solomon Sanwer, in May of last year at a boarding house on Montgomery street. The men who will hear the evidence are George W. Freiburger, Fort Wayne; John Hensinger, Ernest Wittee, William Hawkins, Madison township; H. D. Meads; Jackson; John Ehle, Milan; Peter Conrad, Adams; James Rousseau, Washington; Frank J. Rose, Adams; George Johnson, Eel River; James Salway, Monroe, and John Dowie, Aboite.

There were no challenges and very few members of the special venire of twenty men were called to th jury box. All who were excused were allowed to go by the court either on account of illness or for some other good cause. Prosecutor Thomas made the opening statement and he is being assisted by his deputy, Harry H. Hilgemann, while Attorney E. G. Hoffman and Phil B. Colerick are representing the accused.

An interpreter in the person of Adeed Araman has been obtained from Chicago to translate the evidence, as most of the witnese are Syrian and can not impart theirs knowledge of the case to the jurors. In the examination of the jurors attention was paid particularly to a vendetta that is said to have brought about the killing. All of the parties are being closely watched and the deputy sheriffs are guarding against the possibility of an outbreak either in the court room or on the street. There has been no open demonstration but feeling is evidently running high among the foreigners.

NEW DATE AGAIN CHOSEN.

Commercial Club Meeting is Deferred Until January 20.

President O. N. Guildin this afternoon announced a further postponement of the regular meeting of the Commercial club, which will not now be held until Thursday evening of next week, January 20. Originally fixed for Thursday of this week, the meeting was first deferred until the following evening, but the gathering of the Shriners, it is found, will engage the attention of many Commercial club members, and it was decided to again postpone the club meeting to a date one week later than the first night selected.

BEGIN SEARCH IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—Search for Roberta De Janon, the 17-year-old heiress of Philadelphia, who disappeared from her home with Ferdinand Cohen, a waiter, eleven days ago, was started here today. Following a telegram from the chief of police of Philadelphia, Captain Wood, of the detective bureau, detailed two men to make the search. The couple is supposed to have arrived here Friday, according to the information received.

PROBING DEATH OF RAIL MAGNATE'S YOUNG SON

Nathaniel F. Moore Found Dead in a Resort in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—Coroner Peter Hoffman today planned to take personal charge of the investigation into the causes of the death of Nathaniel F. Moore, son of James Hobart Moore, leader of the Rock Island group of financiers, who was found dead in a room in a south side resort under somewhat mysterious circumstances. He is said to have died yesterday afternoon and it was not until early today that the police gave out the news.

"There are many circumstances in connection with the case that require explanation," said Coroner Hoffman today. "Apparently Mr. Moore died of heart disease, but I will not be satisfied until my doctors have made a postmortem examination. I am planning to take charge of the case personally."

The inquest was opened at 10 o'clock at Mr. Moore's apartments on the Lake Shore drive.

According to the police Moore entered the house from a taxicab at 2 a. m. Sunday. He had been drinking and at 8 a. m. complained of being ill. Dr. W. F. Murray is said to have attended him and later Moore said he felt better.

Moore continued drinking and late yesterday afternoon said he was feeling ill again. Dr. Murray was again called and when he arrived the police say, Moore was dying. Dr. Murray worked over him but without avail.

The police are said to be working on the theory that a drug, often used to keep liberal spenders awake in resorts so that they would continue to buy drinks freely, may have been the cause of Moore's death. Moore is said to have given Victoria Shaw, the proprietor of the resort in which his body was found, a check for $1,500 two weeks ago. Police report that there was only $2.50 in his pockets.

Coroner Physician Rhinehart announced after the postmortem examination of the body of Moore that Moore had died of heart disease, superinduced by intoxication.

WAS A BROADWAY SPENDER.

New York, Jan. 10.—The death of Nathaniel Ford Moore in Chicago ends the career of one of New York's best known spenders. Tiring of his meteoric career, Moore left for the west saying he was going to fit himself for active participation in his railroad interests. His marriage to Miss Helen Fargo in 1905 followed a romantic courtship and a motor trip through the south of France under the chaperonage of the young woman's aunt.

In 1907 young Moore caused Broadway to gasp by giving a $20,000 dinner to a select few. Gold and diamond sleeve buttons were given away to the guests. At a dinner given on his 21st birthday Moore gave to the guests pearl necklaces costing several hundred dollars each.

INSURGENT WAR GROWS IN HEAT

NOW READY FOR A FIGHT TO FINISH

Will Be Tied by Caucus and Denied Help from Organization.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Insurrection stalked afresh among the republican insurgents of the house today, when they read the letters of the republican congressional committee published today, declaring that the insurgents were without the pale so far as concerned support from the committee in the coming congressional elections.

Half a dozen leading members of the rebels were seen at their offices in the house building today prior to the convening of the house and they were unanimously emphatic in the disapproval of what the republican congressional committee had said.

All were in favor of the insurgents meeting without delay and a reply formulated to the committee's letter. An unequivocal answer is necessary, they said.

Hayes Declares Himself.

Congressman Hayes, of California, said: "The congressional committee cannot put me outside of the republican party by any such declarations. They cannot impugn my party fealty. I have voted regularly and consistently for republican policies and they cannot deny it. I intend to continue to do so. I voted for Cannon and for the tariff bill, although I may say, I was not entirely suited in either particular. The insurgents will have a meeting within a day or two and we will see about this thing. Two can play at this game, they will find."

Norris, of Nebraska, expressed himself as in favor of fighting back with all the vigor possible.

Gardner Writes to Taft.

Gardner, of Massachusetts, one of the chief insurgents, has written a letter to President Taft, and is said to have treated with the situation in unmistakable language. All of the insurgents desired it understood that in the Ballinger-Pinchot matter they wished to see appointed by the house an impartial committee which would undertake no "whitewashing" of anybody.

Rapping the Insurgents.

The power of party caucus will be invoked in the house in an effort to suppress the revolt of the insurgents. The leaders decided today that whenever the insurgents as a body differ with the majority the caucus shall determine the party course.

It was said in the house today that Representative Dwight, of New York, republican whip, had taken the names of the so-called insurgent republican congressmen off the list of representatives, to whom he regularly sent notices demanding their attendance at times of division.

Leaves House Action Free.

The senate committee on public lands today reconvened and amended its resolution providing for the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation so as to leave to the house the method of selecting its membership of the committees.

The senate adopted the resolution s reported by the committee after defeating an amendment proposed by Senator Newlands, which would permit "any official or ex-officials whose conduct might be considered to appear in person or by counsel."

Gardner Back With Insurgents.

Among the significant developments of the insurgents' hand in the house today was the return to the insurgent camp of Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts, son-in-law of Senator Lodge. Mr. Gardner gave out an interview early in the session in which

BUY MORE PROPERTY HERE AT A COST OF $30,000

General Electric Purchases Montgomery Street Building.

The General Electric company has added to its Fort Wayne realty holdings to the extent of $30,000 by the purchase of the old Model Steam bakery property on Montgomery street. The purchase was made from A. Katzenberg, and the transaction was negotiated on Saturday.

The new tract has a frontage of 70 feet on Montgomery street and a depth of 153 feet. It is occupied by a two-story brick building erected by Mr. Katzenberg but a few years ago as a baking establishment, and it adjoins the main building of the General Electric company now utilized for the manufacture of incandescent lamps.

When Mr. Katzenberg retired from the baking business he leased the building to the General Electric company, and it has used it as a part of its factory for the past four years. The purchase by the General Electric company indicates a purpose to further develop and increase its business in Fort Wayne.

R. C. F. RAYHOUSER IS DEAD AT AGE OF 82 YEARS

He Was Fort Wayne's Oldest Printer — Other Deaths and Funerals.

Rufus C. F. Rayhouser, Fort Wayne's oldest printer, who had for many years conducted a little job printing establishment at 134 East Berry street, died late Saturday afternoon at his home, corner of Charlotte avenue and the St. Joe road. Mr. Rayhouser was nearly 82 years of age, and death was due entirely to the infirmities of age.

He was born at Harrisburg, Pa., February 16, 1828, and when a mere boy moved with his parents to Mansfield, Ohio, where he learned the trade of a printer, coming to Fort Wayne in 1850. He took up the study of law, and later opened an office for the practice of his profession at Oshkosh, Wis. Legal practice was not to his liking, and he soon returned to Fort Wayne and resumed work at the printer's trade. For some time prior to the civil war Mr. Rayhouser was editor of the Fort Wayne Times, then published by John W. Dawson. Later he was the publisher of a Masonic magazine, but it was discontinued when Mr. Rayhouser lost his printing office by fire. He was employed at various times on the old Gazette and The Sentinel, and after some years devoted to farming and the dairy business, Mr. Rayhouser established the job printing business, which he conducted down to the time when failing health made it impossible for him to give it attention.

Mr. Rayhouser was a member of Summit City lodge of Masons, and is survived by the widow and five children—C. W. Rayhouser, former justice of the peace; Mrs. C. E. Wright, of Whiting; Mrs. J. E. Covington, Fort Wayne, and Frank and A. L. Rayhouser, living upon a farm near Huntington.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, Rev. Henry T. Sell, of Plymouth Congregational church, officiating; interment at Lindenwood.

LANIGAN.

Patrick Lanigan, who was for many years watchman at the Calhoun street crossing of the Pennsylvania and Wabash railroads, died Sunday at the Old People's home in Avilla, where he had been living since the death of a son about one year ago. Mr. Lanigan was 80 years of age.

He was born in Ireland, came to American when a mere boy and almost at once entered the employ of the railroad company. He worked for some years as a track hand and about forty years ago was made watchman at the crossing, where he remained in faithful service until reaching the age of retirement a few years ago. It was said that in his long period of service here he came to know personally every person who walked or drove over the crossing regularly. He had many friends. Mr. Lanigan's wife died some years ago, and later two sons passed away. One son is still living, but it is said his whereabouts are unknown. The deceased was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic church.

Funeral services from the Catholic church at Avilla Tuesday morning; interment in the Catholic cemetery in Fort Wayne.

WOLF.

Mrs. Rosena Matilda Wolf, wife of Henry Wolf, 401 Superior street, died Sunday morning from pneumonia after an illness of two weeks. The deceased was 18 years of age.

Surviving relatives include the husband, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rapp, of New Haven; a brother, Ralph Lehman, and a sister, Miss Leona Lehman.

Funeral services Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence; interment at the I. O. O. F. cemetery, New Haven.

FRENTZEL.

Mrs. Susan Frentzel, widow of the late John A. N. Frentzel, and for many years a resident of Fort Wayne, died shortly before midnight Sunday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Crawford, 1220 Lafayette street. Mrs. Frentzel was 71 years of age and had been ill for the past six months.

The deceased came to Fort Wayne with her husband thirty-five years ago from Logansport, and the husband was one of the earliest editors of the Freie-Presse. His death occurred three years ago. She was a woman of fine character and was widely known and had many friends. Surviving relatives include the daughter, Mrs. Crawford; two granddaughters, Laura and Jennie Crawford, and a brother, Rev. William McCorkle, who resides at Monticello, Ind.

Mrs. Frentzel was a member of the English Lutheran church of the Redeemer, and Rev. Hahn will officiate at the funeral services on Wednesday. The remains will be taken to Logansport for interment.

WITZGALL.

Miss Sarah Barbara Witzgall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Witzgall, died at 5 o'clock Sunday evening at the family home in Nine Mile, this county, from diabetes, after an extended illness.

Miss Witzgall's age was 19 years and 9 months, and she is survived by the parents and five sisters. Miss Witzgall was an estimable young lady and had a wide circle of friends. Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence and at 2 o'clock from the United Brethren church at Nine Mile.

HANES.

Thelma C. Hanes, 7 years of age, died at 8 o'clock this morning at the residence of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hanes, 2222 Fairfield avenue.

hinge on what is called the warping surface. Their machines have to depend on the vertical rudder to help them maintain their balance. The warping surface of the planes give the machine a turning tendency which the rudder has to overcome. The rudders on the Curtiss machines have no such function. This meet will prove what I say."

There is no set program for any day except Saturday when the government dirigible, in charge of Lieut. Paul Beck, of the signal corps, will try a night attack on the revenue cutter Perry in San Pedro harbor.

Any aviator may go up at any time between 1 o'clock in the afternoon and dark and there is no doubt that several of them will probably plan surprises.

All aviators maintain the utmost secrecy regarding their plans. Apparently this is more to keep competitors in the dark than to mystify the eager throngs of spectators.

Thursday, however, is practically certain to see some records shattered.

Declines Fortune to Stay Down.

Another enthusiast who may make a flight before the day is over is Clifford Harmon, millionaire sportsman of New York, whose machine Curtiss tried out in the flights yesterday. Harmon holds the American balloon record of forty-eight hours in the air, but has never ridden in an aeroplane. Commodore C. C. Benedict, Harmon's father-in-law, prefers that his son-in-law should stay on the ground.

"I'll give you the price of ten of those machines," he said to Mr. Harmon, "if you will not go up." But Harmon turned the offer down.

One feature will be flights by Mrs. Paulhan with one of the Frenchmen who came with her husband. Like her husband, she speaks no English, but she announced her intention of flying. She met Mrs. Curtiss, wife of the chief American rival of Paulhan, and through the same interpreter tried to induce her to enter an unscheduled competition for women aviators.

Never Guided a Machine.

Mrs. Curtiss has never yet essayed to manipulate one of the dangerous flyers and it is doubtful if she will attempt to operate one of them.

Harmon is planning another feature, but one which is apart from aeroplaning. He has sent invitations to Governor Spry, of Utah, and Governor Sloan, of Arizona, to come here during the week and take a sail in his big balloon, New York.

Governor Gillett, of California, will be here for the entire meeting and will ascend at least once.

SYNDICATED WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC INDICATED

Important Testimony is Uncovered by New York Grand Jury.

New York, Jan. 10.—Syndicated white slavery is under fire here today. In the grand jury room District Attorney Whitman asked the investigators of the traffic to find indictments against certain individuals who, he is satisfied, are leaders.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, JR.

It is believed the searching investigation undertaken by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., as foreman of the special grand jury has already proceeded far enough to show not only that an organized white slave traffic really exists but there are close relations between traffickers in women in the principal cities of the country.

Ownership of many illicit resorts in this city is being traced through title companies, and it is currently reported that one man or syndicate has been found to own several such places here. Outside investigation is under way to trace the affiliations of the reputed syndicate in other large centers of population, east and west.

CITY BREVITIES.

M. B. Tyger left Sunday night for Toledo and Detroit in the interest of the Paragon Manufacturing company.

Old Fort Council No. 192, Royal League, will install its officers Wednesday evening at Harmony hall, with Charles E. Fowler, of Indiana Harbor, officiating as installing officer. A progressive pedro party and smoker will follow the regular program.

Attorney F. E. Zollars left last evening for Pittsburg to confer with the general counsel of the Pennsylvania railroad. It is understood that Mr. Zollars' appointment as counsel for the Pennsylvania lines, succeeding his father, the late Judge Zollars, will in all probability be given out in a few days.

Major L. A. Centlivre will leave tomorrow for a business trip to Gary.

Attorney W. A. Campbell and his bride, who was formerly Miss Albrecht, of San Francisco, arrived in Kendallville Saturday evening on their return from their wedding trip. Today Mr. Campbell was at his desk in the Physicians' Defense building. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. August E. C. Becker, wife of the well-known Fairfield avenue merchant, is very critically ill at the Lutheran hospital, and it is feared she cannot long survive.

Everley & Wallace, of Plymouth, have been awarded the contract for the erection of the new Plymouth sanitarium and hospital, plans for which were drawn by Architect Ralph M. Snyder, of this city.

The Willing Workers Aid society will have an all day's sewing on comforts Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Kreager.

MAY NOT LET CONTRACT.

The board of park commissioners went into session at 3 o'clock this afternoon to take up routine work and it was stated that while the matter of letting a contract for the pavilion at Swinney park is the most important in sight it is not likely the award will be made. The members of the board are not satisfied with the figures and will hold the letting up for a time. The three lowest bidders are: Henry J. Kaiser, $2,800; Christian Franke, $2,787, and the Engineering company, $2,774.

DIED IN RIVERSIDE, CAL.

Mrs. J. W. English, Known in Fort Wayne, Passes Away.

Friends in Fort Wayne have received word of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell English, wife of Rev. J. W. English, D. D., which occurred Sunday at the family home in Riverside, Cal. Until a few months ago they resided in McDonald, Pa., a suburb of Pittsburg, where Dr. English was pastor of the United Presbyterian church for nearly thirty years, and the removal to the west was in the hope that Mrs. English's health might be benefited by the change. Surviving members of the family are the husband, a daughter in her sophomore year in college, and a little son. Rev. Dr. English is a brother of Dr. C. H. English, Mrs. S. M. Merriam and Mrs. M. Gresley, of this city, and Mrs. C. F. Hubler, of Hoagland.

GOT AWAY WITH BLANKETS.

A man representing himself as an employe at the Perfine-Armstrong plant, secured two horse blankets valued at $2.50 each from Henry Kiehe's store on Columbia street Saturday night and sold them at B. Woodward's second-hand store at 620 Harrison street. Detective Bob Dickson located them today, but the man who sold them made his escape.

he was quoted as favoring a cessation of hostilities. Today he stated to reporters that he had some time ago urged his insurgent associates to adopt a conciliatory course, but he was now convinced in view of the many occurrences that they were right in not doing so. He was now in favor of a radical program of action.

"As there is to be no truce I expect to act with the insurgents on all matters relating to the rules and management of the house of representatives. I had hoped that things would take a different turn and there would be no split in the party, but I do not at all blame the house insurgents for resenting the attacks on them and carrying the fight back to the source from which it is coming.

"I am personally in favor of practically everything the president recommended and shall so vote. The other insurgents will act individually in these matters as each sees fit. It is unfair to represent the house insurgents as being opposed to President Taft. They are working for the single purpose of freeing the lower house of congress from autocracy."

ELKINS HAS RAIL BILL.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Senator Elkins, chairman of the committee on interstate commerce, will be the instrument of the administration in presenting to the senate the administration bill for the amendment of the interstate commerce law. He has not decided just when he will introduce the measure, but it will go in within the next day or two.

Although it is along somewhat advanced lines Mr. Elkins has reached the conclusion that the bill fairly represents modern thought. He says that public opinion demands the government regulation of the railroads and does not consider this objectionable so long as it stops short of governmental management.

TAFT FAVORS FOOD INQUIRY.

Washington, Jan. 10.—President Taft expressed to Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, today his hearty approval and support of the proposed investigation into the high cost of living, authorized by a resolution Senator Elkins has presented in the senate. Senator Elkins said today that the committee of inquiry probably would be made of from five to seven members, as the scope of the inquiry would be large and the work heavy.

Mr. Elkins declared that he hoped the investigation would result in sufficient publicity to place the blame for high prices where it belonged and do much toward working out a solution of the problem.

RAIL BILL GOES TO CONGRESS.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Representative Townsend introduced in the house this afternoon the bill embodying the recommendations outlined in the special message of President Taft for amendments to the interstate commerce law. It provides, among other things, for a special court composed of five federal circuit judges to have exclusive original jurisdiction in matters arising out of interstate commerce commission.

MILITARY SCHOOL BURNS.

New York Academy at Cornwall is Destroyed by Fire.

Newburg, Jan. 10.—The New York military academy at Cornwall, N. Y., was destroyed by fire today, with the exception of Bard hall, used by the younger students. Nobody was hurt. When the fire was discovered the bugle was sounded and the cadets, with military precision, marched out, most of them in pajamas and bath robes. They lost all their personal effects. There were about fifteen students in the academy. The buildings destroyed were worth about $100,000. The academy has educated young men for Westpoint for forty years.

TWENTY NEW CARS HERE.

Street Railway Equipment is Now Arriving Rapidly.

Four new street cars for the city lines, which arrived today, bring the total of new cars received up to twenty, and they are rapidly displacing the old cars on the city lines. Six more are yet to come, when the Fort Wayne equipment will be almost entirely new.

The other cars yet to come include four interurban passenger cars and four freight trailers. Two freight cars have already been received.

Mrs. N. R. Lacy, of 454 Montgomery street, fell on the icy sidewalks yesterday and broke her left arm. Dr. McCausland attended her.

LOOKING OVER THE GROUND.

Board Will Take No Action on the Spy Run Wire Matter.

Members of the board of works will not take any action on the question of removing the wires from Spy Run avenue until the matter has been finally acted upon by the city council. They went over the territory to familiarize themselves with the conditions, but the fact that the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company has consented to the removal as soon as easements can be obtained over a new route and that the city council has the affair in hand will prevent the board from acting at this time.

The board met in regular session this afternoon with nothing but a few small routine matters to come before it. The electric light meeting was held during the afternoon, but the board members said they had no changes in mind and no appointments would be made.

Fox Bros. are all torn up, but are doing business as usual.

FARMER'S INSTITUTE.

The Allen County Farmers' Institute association will hold institutes as follows: Hoagland, January 15; Harlan, January 21 and 22, and Grabill, January 12. H. F. Hubler, of Hoagland, is the president of the association.

CRICKMORE GOT HIS PAPERS ON FILE BUT LOST

Wife Had Complaint in Pickle Too—The News of Courts.

Developments in the divorce suit of Larkin A. Crickmore against Mary N. Crickmore, which was heard in the superior court today, indicated that the wife was in the rush for a separation but lost out by a lap because the husband got his complaint on file first. There was no evidence to justify Judge Heaton in granting a decree and it was continued after he had said he did not consider the evidence sufficient.

Crickmore said he got at outs with his wife's son by a former marriage and told him he could not live under his roof any longer. Mrs. Crickmore said she would go if the son did and she went. The husband said this constituted enough cruelty to get him a deree but the judge thought not.

It was agreed between the attorneys that Mrs. Crickmore will try her hand with a cross complaint as she believes she has enough material to secure a decree.

Marie A. Hahn had better luck. She got a divorce from Frederick W. Hahn.

McElroy in Hard Luck.

Charles McElroy, who was convicted and fined in the circuit court today for allowing his horse to starve to death, was also sued for divorce by his wife, Elnora, who charges that he was cruel to her and that he does not provide for her support and that of the children. Recently he spent a couple of days in Hope hospital as the result of a mixup with his wife, in which she wielded a knife effectively. They are negroes.

Gone to Bulgaria.

Josephine L. Simon says that Daniel Simon abandoned her and she thinks he has gone to Bulgaria to stay permanently and she wants a divorce. They were married in April, 1907, and lived together until the following October. E. V. Harris filed the suit.

Dillon Got Divorce.

Pliny Dillon, arrested a few days ago on a warrant issued at the instance of his wife, stated in the superior court today that he lived with Rose Dillon only thirty days after their marriage and she left him and declined to live with him. He secured a divorce.

Judge Overruled Motion.

In the superior court Judge Heaton overruled a motion for a new trial in the suit of John Neuman against the Fort Wayne Electric works and entered a judgment for $1,133.25 in accordance with the verdict of the jury that tried it. An appeal was taken to the appellate court.

WHAT'S DOING IN A POLITICAL WAY

Now that the ice has been broken, in a figurative way, by the earliest formal announcement of candidates for county office, it is expected that the next few weeks will bring forth a long list of announcements from candidates whose prospects have been thus far confined to local political gossip. In democratic ranks there has already been much quiet activity by friends of various aspirants for place upon the ticket, but the formal announcements will give a definite status to a large number of booms which have up to this time been confined to a little preliminary investigation of the state of the public pulse.

* * *

Calvin H. Brown was the first to place himself definitely in the race with a public declaration of his candidacy for the democratic nomination for auditor. Mr. Brown has been the chief deputy under Auditor Lindemuth, and he has a big following of friends over the entire county. Another candidate for the same nomination is Will A. Johnson, an energetic and popular young democrat who was for three years deputy surveyor, and who is now at the head of the Fort Wayne Abstract company.

* * *

William E. Gerding has made formal announcement of his candidacy for the democratic nomination for county clerk. Mr. Gerding is a resident of this city, and was a candidate for the nomination four years ago, when he was beaten out by Mr. Mason by a very narrow margin.

* * *

The dates for the county primary for the selection of committeemen for both democrats and republicans will be chosen at a conference of the chairmen of the two parties. It must be held prior to March 1, and the county organizations will be completed by the election of chairmen and other officials shortly after that date.

* * *

The republican state committee has directed that delegates to the district convention to be held in Fort Wayne February 1 shall be elected in Fort Wayne on January 28 and in the outside of township on January 29. Allen county's representation in the district convention is somewhat increased over former years, but unlike the democratic situation, the republican vote in Allen county is not sufficient to give this county control of the district convention. The apportionment by counties is: Allen, 47; Noble, 13; DeKalb, 15; Lagrange, 12; Whitley, 12; Steuben, 14.

NO EVIDENCE HEARD AGAINST YOUNG PEOPLE

Low Brows and Degenerates Robbed of Salacious Feast.

Low brows and degenerates who make it a point to get around early when there is any promise of salacious testimony in the city court, were robbed of a feast when the cases of Beatrice, Katie and William Crom and Ray Rarick were called this morning, as Judge Mungovan disposed of all of them without a word of testimony and all the regular patrons heard was very tame evidence touching upon some inebriated hoboes.

The quartet was sent over after a special session of the city court on Saturday afternoon to the county jail, where William and Beatrice Crom were released yesterday on bonds of $25 each. These two, with Katie Crom, were held to the juvenile court. Rarick got a fine of $10 and costs, with a suspended sentence, conditioned that he go back to his mother at Huntington and stay there. All were captured Saturday at the New Hayes house.

Drank Out of Bottle.

There were four bottled drunks in court and all of them were fined. Three of the lot had just gotten out of jail and were out at the Wabash sand house drinking and insulting people. Two testified that "a fellow" asked them to drink out of a bottle and they did. The police made every effort to find out where they got their liquor and are convinced that it was purchased Saturday night. Of the four Joseph Murphy and John Gill were fined $5 and costs each and James Howard and James McCormick got 1 each.

Let Horse Starve.

Charles McElroy, a negro living out back of the Indiana school, was fined $1 and costs for cruelty to animals. Humane Officer Schlaudroff stated that he had warned the negro several times about his failure to feed his horse and cow and finally the former got so weak from hunger that it got down and couldn't get up. Neighbors killed it.

In Wrong House.

Frank Perriguey, who has been drinking heavily for some time, wandered into the house at 105 Superior street early this morning and caused a burglar alarm. Patrolmen Grimme and Rundell, of the "spoon squad," got him and charged him with drunkenness. His case was continued.

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready made product. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first-class druggists for 50c, and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by Meyer Bros., special agents.

"THE COW PUNCHER" TONIGHT.

Preston-Brickert Stock Players in a Western Drama.

The Preston-Brickert players will be seen at the Majestic this evening in their first western drama—"The Cow Puncher"—a stirring story of the plains written by John A. Preston and Hal Reid. It was given its first Fort Wayne production this afternoon, and will be seen again at the Majestic on Wednesday and Friday, with matinees each day. "The Cow Puncher" is said to realistically depict old-time life in the wild and woolly west, and while the piece is abundantly charged with thrills, its action is said to be both natural and connected and always entertaining.

"Honeymoon Trail" Tuesday Night.

For those to whom a hearty laugh means much, "Honeymoon Trail," with Bert Baker and Dennis Mason, under the management of Mort H. Singer, which will appear at the Majestic Tuesday evening, will prove a gratifying entertainment. A funny thing in connection with Mr. Baker is the fact that while he has been playing "stage" Irishmen for the past fifteen years, he is an American, as are also his parents. He has hard work to make anyone believe this, his brogue and characterization being so natural, and he is kept busy denying his Irish nativity to his many admirers, who claim him as a brother from the "ould sod." The "Honeymoon Trail" is full of clever comedy and catchy music and songs, interpreted by a clever company.

"The Clansman" Thursday.

Of the hundreds of plays that fill up space on the billboards and in the advertising columns of the newspapers, few really score a permanent success. Most of them are talked about for a while, seen once or twice, and then forgotten. Of a different type are such familiar and well-loved offerings as "Way Down East," "In Old Kentucky," "Uncle Tom's Cabin" or "Ben Hur." These latter strike a vein of sentiment and interest that appeals to all the people all the time, and their continued success is unquestionable. "The Clansman," a story of the Ku Klux Klan, by Thomas Dixon, jr., is the latest of the standard plays to come into this class, but it promises to surpass them all in the affectionate regard of the public and the term of its existence. Though only on the boards a little over three years, it has been witnessed by nearly 4,000,000 people. The demand for it grows by what it feeds on. "The Clansman" bears a curious relation to that other success of half a century ago, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It is described by its author as an answer and a sequel to Mrs. Stowe's immortal work. As the other was the black side of the negro problem, so "The Clansman" presents the white or Anglo-Saxon side of racial questions and retelling a beautiful love story of the blue and gray. The visit of "The Clansman" to the Majestic Thursday, matinee and evening, is a red-letter event of the theatrical season.

THE LYRIC THEATER.

One of the prettiest and most highly educated ponies in the world is Don, appearing at the Lyric this week. His work borders on the marvelous. Williams and Gordon are eccentric singers, dancers and comedians with a good amount of originality. Thomas and Hamilton in a novelty so different from others, are highly entertaining. The new pictures are very good. A reception will be given on the stage Saturday afternoon, at which time a photo of Don will be presented to each child present. All children holding school tickets will be admitted for 5 cents. Those who have not secured the school tickets can have same by inquiring at the door. The usual ladies' and children's bargain matinee coupons will be found in the Lyric advertisement in this issue.

The sales of Red Cross stamps and post cards in Fort Wayne during the holiday season realized a total of $386.89, which will be devoted to the fight against tuberculosis in Indiana. The sale was under the auspices of the Daughters of American Revolution, whose work, as well as that of their assistants, was wholly unselfish and without pecuniary profit.

Representative Cline has telegraphed P. A. Randall requesting him to come to Washington Thursday to appear before the sub-committee of the house rivers and harbors committee in behalf of a survey for the proposed Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago canal. Mr. Randall has been suffering from an affection of the ear for several days, but hopes to be able to make the trip.

For Constipation

A Medicine that Does Not Cost Anything Unless it Gives Satisfactory Relief.

If you suffer from constipation in any form whatever, acute or chronic, we will guarantee to supply you medicine that we honestly believe will effect permanent relief, if taken with regularity and according to directions for a reasonable length of time. Should the medicine fail to benefit you to your entire satisfaction we promise that it shall cost you nothing.

No other remedy can be compared with Rexall Orderlies for the easy, pleasant and successful treatment of constipation. The active medicinal ingredient of this remedy, which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other valuable ingredients, it forms a preparation which is incomparable as a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, and are notable for their gentle and agreeable action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience, and may be taken at any time, day or night.

We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children and for delicate or aged persons, because they do not contain anything injurious. Unlike other preparations, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the habits acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics, and harsh physic, and remove the causes of constipation or irregular bowel action that are not of surgical variety.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. We know of nothing that will do you so much good. They are prepared in tablet form in two sizes: 36 tablets 25 cents, and 12 tablets 10 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Fort Wayne only at our store.—The Rexall Store. Meyer Bros. Co., three drug stores.

THE LAWS ENFORCED.

The Grice administration has been in office one week. During that brief period it has been practicably demonstrated that the saloon laws can be enforced in this city. Sunday for the first time in many years the saloons were closed throughout the city—and not by agreement, not because it was considered by the saloonists to be good policy, not to enable some liquor-dealers to "get even" with other liquor-dealers, but because it is the law. If there was any violation of the law it was of the most secret and sneaking sort—the kind in which there is neither profit nor comfort for the violator. During the one week of the Grice administration the saloons have been closed at night upon the hour the law directs. There has been no appreciable difficulty in bringing about these unwonted conditions.

As a candidate Mayor Grice pledged himself to law enforcement. He signalized the opening day of his administration by specific orders to the police department to enforce the law; and he has given the very best evidence of the good faith of his orders by placing at the head of his police department a man who knows nothing about inventing excuses for failure in his duty and who takes the law for his counsellor and his oath for his guide.

As we have always insisted so do we still maintain that enforcing the law is a matter of no great difficulty nor one of any complexity at all. The head of municipal authority needs merely to desire to do his duty, keep the obligations of his official oath and put men at the head of his police department who have the courage and honesty to do their full duty. All these conditions are present in the Grice administration. The results in the brief period of its control have served fully to disclose that the intent of the administration has all to do with the kind of government the people get.

Of course Gifford Pinchot could not escape fool friends, who in silly, damaging zeal, must promptly start a presidential boom for him. Naturally that is distasteful and embarrassing to him, for it compromises his position in the Ballinger affair. Mr. Pinchot is sincerely devoted to a great work. He is trying to serve the people and has had no though of selfish ends, least of all political honors. The ex-forester went the extreme length for his cause, but there remains much more that he can do as a private citizen. His path of further usefulness does not lie, however, in the devious grooves of politics as a candidate for the presidency or any other elective office. It is a pity that feather-brained partisans cannot be content to let his splendid work stand for what it is, and refrain from compromising him by ascribing political motives where none exist.

The police department is making a sincere endeavor to drive the mashers off the streets, to keep the girl loafers at home and break up the lounging of boys and girls in doorways and stairways down town. It is a commendable move that should long ago have been made. It is well understood, of course, that police vigilance cannot make up what is lacked by those boy and girl youngsters who have careless and indifferent parents, but it can do much. As for the street corner mashers, that class of public pests can be more summarily dealt with. A few arrests will dispose of that evil.

The new mayor of Indianapolis signalized his first Sunday in office by putting a lid on that city. Near a score of saloonkeepers who tried to run the blockade were arrested and the law had better enforcement than for many years, although Indianapolis has not been a really wide-open town at any time. Saloons have had some indulgences at proscribed times, but there has not been the audacious, flagrant, amazing and unconcealed defiance of the law that previous to the last Sunday has marked conditions in this city.

Uncle Joe insists that he wasn't even pinked when the insurgents made a deadly thrust at him over the Ballinger inquiry. Perhaps not. But it will be noticed Aldrich has brought the senate immediately to the relief of the boss of the house. The insurgents are out for a fight and if the speaker doesn't choose to make public recognition of it now he doubtless will have no choice in the matter later on. There is more than the Ballinger inquiry on the fight schedule.

It was a nice, new, tight-fitting lid, Mayor Grice has shown 'em. Now let there be no relapse.

Secretary Ballinger may in all things be the good man he protests he is—but.

POLICY

GERMAN-AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK

Corporations have reputations for integrity or the lack of it just the same as men have.

By their methods of business they inspire confidence or create distrust, just the same as men do.

In building up a reputation the policy of a Bank is judged by the community, just as a man is judged by his manner of life.

A Bank's influence for good or bad in a community does not differ from that of an individual, and a good name is just as valuable an asset to a corporation, as it is to a business firm, a newspaper, or the individual man.

The German-American National Bank is proud of the reputation which it has been able to achieve. We feel that when we speak of "the reputation of this Bank" we are not using an empty and meaningless phrase.

It makes no pretense of having had a brilliant, dazzling career, for it has not attempted any of those picturesque sensational schemes that are generally hailed with loud acclaim by the short-sighted, unthinking crowd.

On the contrary, it has just "plugged along," keeping everlastingly at it, consulting the interests of its customers, keeping down its expenses, turning a deaf ear to the speculator, the promoter, and men generally with "schemes, projects and sure-good-things."

What it has done in the past it proposes to continue doing in the future.

Half Price Overcoat Sale

Starts with a rush. We said Friday night "The Greatest Sale ever known in Fort Wayne would begin Saturday morning and last until Saturday night, January 20th." Although our sale was not advertised in any manner until Friday evening, we sold more goods Saturday than we have ever before sold in one day. Owing to the fact that this sale started so soon after Christmas and before any pay days, we were surprised ourselves at the great day Saturday.

WHAT WILL IT BE THIS WEEK?

When more people hear of our sale and know what we are doing. It means that we are going to be busy, busy, busy, and if you want to please us trade as early in the day as you can. Sale lasts three weeks.

We invoice February 1st, and we are going to invoice a little money instead of a lot of Clothing. Our Fall and Winter business has been many thousand dollars ahead of anything our store has ever done before, but our purchases were about $30,000 greater than ever before, so we still have a great stock for you to select from.

NOTICE—Clothing has been advancing almost every week for the last four months, and in many instances our garments are marked at a less price than we can buy them for today. Now it would seem almost insane to the average clothing man to give great discounts from these prices, but never-the-less we shall stick to our motto and not carry over a garment. Write to your friends out of town about this sale. Put it just as strong as you want to, and we will guarantee they will not be disappointed.

Not one dollar's worth of merchandise will be sent out on approval, but you can have your money back for the asking. We do this to lessen the work and trouble,

IN THE CITY'S CHURCHES

SUPERINTENDENT OF M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL HONORED

E. L. Fuestel Successfully Serves More Than Three Years at First Church.

Edward L. Feustel, the retiring president of the Sunday school of the First Methodist Episcopal church was the recipient of a beautiful token of esteem following the regular Sunday morning session of the school. Through the presentation of a handsome mahogany rocker the officers and students of the Sunday school gave evidence of their appreciation of his successful work for the past three and one-half years. During the administration of Mr. Feustel the school has made splendid progress and at present its enrollment is upwards of six hundred.

The presentation speech was made by Hugh M. Beaver, one of the assistant superintendents. He commented upon upon the labors of the recipient and paid a glowing and highly deserved tribute to the untiring interest that he had at all times manifested in the school and its students. Mr. Feustel was taken wholly by surprise and for a few moments was quite unable to respond. In a few well chosen words he expressed his appreciation of the gift and the generous spirit that prompted its presentation.

The officers of the First M. E. Sunday school are: Superintendent, Harry E. Lowery; first assistant superintendent, Prof. H. E. Speece; second assistant superintendent, A. A. Berry; third assistant superintendent and chorister, Hugh M. Beaver; secretary, Myron Crawford; treasurer, Homer G. Weaver; librarian, Mrs. Martha Rideout; pianist, Miss Beulah McCrea.

The First division of the Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Booth, 1148 Harmer street. A meeting of the officers of the General Aid society with all the chairmen and division officers was held this afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Charles P. Strother, 1134 Elmwood avenue.

The Epworth league of the First M. E. church will hold a business meeting Wednesday evening following the mid-week devotional service.

BAPTIST CHURCH REVIVAL.

Special Meetings to Continue This Week, Pastor in Charge.

With the pastor, Rev. John F. Vichert, in charge, the second week's revival services are in progress this week at the First Baptist church. Meetings are held each evening at 7:30 o'clock, the pastor occupying the pulpit. Tonight he will deliver a stirring discourse on the topic, "Marked Men," and the chorus choir will sing. There was an unusually gratifying attendance at the Sunday evening service at which the sermon topic was "Paul's Definition of the Gospel" and was based on the text, "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one who believes."

Following the sermon the solo, "Today is the Accepted Time," was very effectively rendered by Mrs. Clara Zollars Bond. Rev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher, the eminent pastor and evangelist from Richmond, Va., unable through ill health to continue the conduct of the revival, left Sunday night for Baltimore accompanied by his son, Rev. E. B. Hatcher, who is located in the Maryland city.

The Woman's Mission Circle of the First Baptist church will hold a meeting at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. A. Z. Polhamus will be in charge of the program.

Shirey preached a helpful and instructive sermon on the question, "Is It Well?" It was directed particularly to parents and their children and elicited close interest. The orchestra which was recently organized in the church rendered an excellent program.

This evening the pastor will preach on "Famine" and special musical selections will be rendered. Rev. N. C. Shirey, superintendent of the Fort Wayne district of the Anti-Saloon League, is a brother of the pastor and will assist him each evening in the conduct of the services.

The Ladies' Missionary society of Bethany church will meet at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Titus, 619 Fry street.

A highly interesting paper was presented at the meeting by Rev. John F. Vichert, pastor of the First Baptist church. His topic was "History as a Discipline for the Ministers."

SALOON MEN SUBMIT TO ORDERS AND CLOSE UP

So Far as Could be Learned No Attempt Was Made to Open.

"It's the first time in four years we've known where we were at," said a saloonkeeper at police headquarters, where he went Saturday night to ascertain whether the order meant that the saloons should be closed or that they should not be caught open and he went right down to his place and when 11 o'clock rolled around he put a big sign over the door of his wet goods department reading "Bar Closed," and it was closed.

If there were any violations of the law they had not been reported to the police today and it is probable that there were none, as saloonmen know that Chief Bill Borgman knows how to keep them closed and they know he will do it and that he will have the support of Mayor Jesse Grice and the board of public safety.

The chief and Captain Tom Elliott took a drive over the city Sunday looking for open saloons and found none, although they made some pretty rigid examinations. In places the curtains were not drawn back far enough to suit the officers and owners were notified that they must comply with the statutes.

The police are satisfied they will have no trouble with the saloon men. Frank Baugher, whose billiard hall is conducted in connection with his saloon, wanted to open the room, but was warned not to attempt it as there were other owners who have similar establishments. They must separate their businesses if they want to open the halls.

Patrolmen Grimme and Rundell, who have been dubbed the "spoon squad," did not make any arrests of mashers, but warned a number of young boys and girls that they must keep in the clear or be taken to headquarters. The crowds were kept moving and decent women were given a chance to pass along Calhoun street without being subjected to insults from the loafers who had heretofore had their own way.

THE NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

TWO SALOON MEN HAVE MERRY WAR

Both Given Licenses and Now Fighting for the Possession of the Same Business Room.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 10.—The Cass county commissioners granted liquor licenses to Isaac Geier and Henry Kruck, Jr., to operate a saloon in the same building, on Market street, and now the two men contemplate a court action to see who will get possession of the room. Kruck is backed by Kelp, a brewer, who remonstrated against Geier. Kelp owns the building, but Geier has a lease which does not expire for a year, and five months. Kelp has filed suit for possession and Geier has employed attorneys, and will fight the proceedings.

SOLD HIS NEWSPAPER.

A. A. Kist Disposes of the Garrett Press.

Garrett, Ind., Jan. 10.—A. A. Kist has sold his interest in the Twelfth District Press, a newspaper published at Garrett, to E. M. McCartney, of Champaign, Ill., and the former's brother, W. G. Kist. McCartney has been managing the paper for some time and W. G. Kist has been in charge of the mechanical department. Recently the Press was changed from a daily to a tri-weekly newspaper.

DOWN PRETTY TIGHT IS LID IN DECATUR

New Mayor Prohibits the Practice of Issuing Checks in Card Games Played.

Decatur, Ind., Jan. 10.—Orders issued by Mayor Judson W. Teeple, who recently took his office, prohibit the issuing of checks for cigars, etc., in connection with the card games played at cigar stores and other places and the marshal, Frank Peterson, has notified the owners of card rooms to that effect. The order has caused a regular commotion among the cigar dealers and they threaten to make the town "tight" in other respects by insisting on law enforcement along lines that may work a hardship to some.

THE SPEED LIMIT.

Bluffton, Ind., Jan. 10.—The city council has adopted a resolution authorizing the city attorney to serve notice on the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction company that the company must obey the full provisions of its franchise and stop at all crossings designated and should be more careful not to exceed the speed limit on North Main street. The franchise provides that cars must be run to the Bliss house corner on Main street, but car crews have not obeyed this provision since through service was inaugurated in connection with the I. U. T., but turn a square north of the Bliss house corner.

A PIONEER MILLER WAS JACOB RYDER

Whose Death Occurred in Noble County—Was Near to the Century Mark in Age.

Albion, Ind., Jan. 10.—The funeral of Jacob Ryder, whose death at the age of 96 years occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alfred Roush, in Wilmot, took place Sunday from the Salem church, southeast of Wilmot and was largely attended.

His was a death that recalled memories of the time when the country in many parts of this county was covered with the virgin forests, for he settled in the county in early years and encountered all the privations and hardships of pioneer life. And in the county's history he played a prominent part.

Sixty-one years ago, in 1848, Mr. Ryder built a saw mill in the western part of Washington township, Noble county, on the Tippecanoe river, securing his water power from a dam that formed a small lake. Seven years after the erection of the saw mill the old pioneer built a two and a half-story grist mill on the same dam and people for miles around came to it to get their grist ground and sawing done. At one time the late Henry S. Cobaugh, of this city, owned the mill and operated it for a few years.

The aged man who built the mill was forgotten by most people, but the mill stands today, being operated by a man named Scott. The old pioneer, until he became bedfast a year ago, took great delight in fishing and could be seen almost any day on the banks of the Tippecanoe with pole and line, angling away.

DEATH FROM A FALL.

Columbia City Woman Died as a Result of Injuries.

Columbia City, Ind., Jan. 10.—Mrs. Mary Gallivan, one of the most widely known women of Columbia City, died suddenly at her home in North Oak street yesterday. The day before Christmas Mrs. Gallivan fell while on her way to confessional on the ice in front of the Catholic church in South Line street and fractured her right hip. She was picked up and taken to the Sisters' home and later taken to her own home. She had seemed to be improving from her injury, but Friday she was taken worse and death followed.

Mrs. Gallivan was born in County Kerry, Ireland, sixty-eight years ago, and came to this country when but a young girl. After remaining in New York a short time she came west, settling in Warsaw, with a family named Graves. Some time later she was united in marriage to John Gallivan and with him lived on a farm two miles northwest of this city. For a number of years following her husband's death she continued to reside on the farm, but about a year ago she removed to this city.

HIS MIND IS A WRECK.

Former Surveyor Fulk, of Adams County, Adjudged Insane.

Bluffton, Ind., Jan. 10.—Edward Fulk, formerly county surveyor of Adams county, has been adjudged insane and application will be made to have him confined in the Eastlaven asylum for the insane at Richmond. Twice last week neighbors of the Fulk family called the officers with reports that Fulk was abusing his wife. She declares false reports that her husband has been addicted to the use of drugs or intoxicants and declares his condition is due to nervous disease resulting from various reverses. While the family resided in Decatur Fulk served a jail sentence there on a charge of assault and battery, for an alleged attack upon his wife. She denies that he attacked her last week.

WON PRINCIPAL PRIZE.

Amos Fulk Got Highest Honors at Kendallville Poultry Show.

Kendallville, Ind., Jan. 10.—Amos Fulk, of Kendallville, secretary of the poultry association, received the highest honors and won the finest cup offered at the Kendallville poultry show with his exhibit of birds, the prize being awarded Saturday, the last day of the exhibit.

The cup was furnished by L. Beckman & Son and is valued at $38. Under the rules it has to be won three times by any one person before it becomes his property, and even if Fulk does not win it again he will have the satisfaction of keeping it a year at least. Fulk had a close race with Ira Ford, of Lagrange.

IN THE SAME CASKET.

Mother and Babe Were Buried at Spencerville.

Spencerville, Ind., Jan. 10.—The funeral of Mrs. Hiram Hutchenson and her infant babe occurred this afternoon here, the burial being at the Spencerville cemetery. The babe died at birth on Friday and the death of the mother took place that evening. The two bodies were placed in the same casket.

DIED AT HOSPITAL.

Garrett, Ind., Jan. 10.—Mrs. Josiah Watts died from paralysis at the Sacred Heart hospital yesterday. She was stricken two weeks ago and two days ago was removed to the hospital.

TRIBUTE TO ALLEN ZOLLARS.

Memorial Spread on Record of the Supreme Court.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 10.—The supreme court has ordered a memorial tribute to the late Allen Zollars, former judge of that court, to be spread upon the record and published with the opinions of the court. This memorial was presented by the Hon. Walter Olds, also a former judge of the supreme court, on behalf of the Allen County Bar association. Chief Justice Hadley added a short tribute of respect, stating that Judge Zollars was held in high esteem by the court and that his judicial opinions have taken high rank in the jurisprudence of the state.

Indoor skating on ice was much enjoyed by over twenty young people on Saturday evening who were guests of Charles Reuss at the curlers' rink. Mr. Reuss took advantage of the fact that the curlers do not use their rink on Saturday evenings to entertain some of his friends in a novel way. Those who did not care to skate played bridge in the adjoining room where all gathered later to dispense with a luncheon.

Mrs. Hyre's Lecture.

Mrs. Sarah E. Hyre, of Cleveland, who was brought to this city by the educational department of the Woman's league to give a lecture on "The Broader Use of Schools as Social Centers" was heard in an interesting talk at the court house on Saturday evening by a small audience. Mrs. Hyre has acted on the Cleveland school board for a number of years and her talk told of that experience and the development of social center work in the school buildings of that city. Mrs. Hyre's ideas which are similar to those of educators in the largest cities where there is large percentage of foreign born population, concern the interest, entertainment and in time the education of children and grown people who live in crowded districts without opportunity for self improvement. No better or more suitable buildings can be found than school buildings and according to Mrs. Hyre's experience and belief, the use of such buildings as social centers would bring into closer sympathy the home and the school, the teacher and the parent and the effect in general would be a broad one in the community. In Cleveland, Mrs. Hyre stated, the work is not merely that of educating the mind and the hands but covers hygienic principles, nourishing food and attention to health.

Voors—Clausmeier.

A pretty wedding at the Cathedral this morning was that of Miss Charlotte E. Clausmeier, daughter of former County Sheriff Edward F. Clausmeier, and Mr. Joseph Voors. The nuptial mass was rendered at half-past 9 o'clock by Rev. Charles Marr. Miss Mamie Clausmeier, a sister of the bride, was her bridesmaid and the bridegroom was attended by his brother, Bernard Voors. The bride, who is a very pretty young woman, looked extremely well in a handsome gown of white net hung over white liberty satin. The bride wore a beautiful white hat and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Mamie Clausmeier wore a champagne color cloth suit with a pink hat trimmed with white plumes. The bridesmaid's flowers were pink carnations. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents in Adams township. About thirty guests were present. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, ferns and plants. Pink and white carnations, roses and other cut flowers filled vases and the bride's table was done in smilax and pink and white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Meyers, of Sheboygan, Wis., were guests at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Voors leave this evening for a few days' wedding trip and on their return will go to housekeeping at 325 East Main street. COLD WEATHER NEGLIGEE

Even in heated bedrooms a warm negligee is best for the semi-invalid whose circulation is apt to be low, and a model-like garment of fine rose pink albatross would be most desirable. It is both light and warm, shows the new sleeve, cut in one with the body of the garment, the end of the sleeve being drawn in around the wrist to insure warmth. The negligee is belted in loosely below the waist by a strip of the heavy lace which forms the trimming. The draped scarf, of rose pink liberty silk, adds beauty to the model.

Exercises that Will Aid in the Cure of Indigestion

Almost any exercise that brings the extremities into use, causing cords to pull from the hips and abdomen, has a highly beneficial effect upon the liver, and consequently upon digestion. It is for this reason that walking is good, the pace being brisk, though not so fast as to be fatiguing. The theory of not sitting for half an hour after eating is as much to keep the blood in circulation, and exercise lower muscles, as it is to prevent inaction of the upper organs, or those of the stomach.

Jumping rope is undoubtedly an excellent exercise for one who has torpid liver, always providing the heart is not weak. Jumping is among the most violent of exercises, and a person must be strong or she should not attempt it.

There will be no doubt as to whether or not it is harmful, for if after five jumps there is a feeling of breathlessness, it would demonstrate one's organic lack of force. On the other hand, if there is only a sensation of healthy fatigue, and ordinary stiffness from using unaccustomed muscles, there is no reason why this form of exercise should not be taken.

Even in this case the work should not be continued for more than five minutes at a time, and at first two minutes is sufficiently long.

One of the best exercises for stimulating a torpid liver is to sit astride a chair, facing the back. Hold the chair firmly, in order not to move on the seat, then from the hips and abdomen twist the body first one way around and then the other as far as it will go, which, obviously, causes a stretch of all cords and muscles in that region. This should be done for five minutes, night and morning, gradually increasing to ten.

For the same purpose is a movement that includes bending from side to side. This, too, must be done when no bands restrict the body. For this exercise one stands erect heels together, and bends sideways far over without altering the shoulders or bending the knees. The object of any exercise that is to act upon the liver is to stretch the muscles in the waist, and if this work is done with shoulders or knees nothing will be accomplished.

Ten minutes, night and morning, should be devoted to this treatment, increasing to fifteen as the muscles become stronger.

A NEW PINCUSHION.

The airship pincushion was one of the novelties of the holiday season. The framework, shaped like an airship, is twisted with pink satin ribbon and sitting in the car is a small bisque doll, whose frock conceals the pincushion.

Another novelty is a small sterling silver receptacle divided into three compartments, one to contain wire hairpins, the second shell hairpins and the third safety pins. This is an exceedingly handy little article.

A sterling silver safety pin holder is furnished with three arms, or branches, over which pins are hung.

TALL GIRLS OR SHORT ONES.

Whether a girl be a giant in height or a small person scarcely four feet high, her lover will always call her "little." It is his pet name for her.

He may be short himself, but his sweetheart is always "little" to him, some one to pet and fuss over; and just as most girls dream of a tall man as their lover, so does a man think of some dear little girl as his sweetheart.

He is often as much disappointed as is a girl who, liking tall men, falls in love with a very short one; the man whose admiration usually centers around slight, short girls will often be head over heels in love with a tall, big girl.

But each has her own charms—the dignified stateliness of a tall woman would seem only ridiculous on a small girl, but this one is said to possess delightful, charming manners, which are hers and hers alone, says Woman's Life.

Be a girl short or tall, slight or otherwise, the man who is in love with her will consider her to be the very perfection of womanly beauty and excellence.

RECIPES.

Baked Bananas.

Strip off one third of the skin of each banana and with a spoon loosen the remainder from the fruit. Arrange in a baking pan, the stripped side uppermost. On each lay one-half of a teaspoonful of butter in bits, and sprinkle with one teaspoonful of sugar and one-half of a teaspoonful of lemon juice. Bake for twenty minutes in a hot oven. The bananas may be entirely stripped if desired, but the skin contains considerable pectin, which it is well to have.

Apple Pudding.

Peel, core and quarter some tart apples; boil them with a little water until easy to be mashed with a spoon; take one-quarter of a pound of mashed apples; add the same weight of butter and sugar while still hot; let the mixture cool, then beat into it three eggs beaten to a stiff froth and the grated peel of one lemon. Butter a pudding form, dust it over with powdered sugar and bake in a quick oven. It will take half an hour. Try by inserting a straw in the middle. If nothing attaches to it when pulled out the baking is done. Serve warm.

SPRING FABRICS.

The advance showing of fabrics for early spring wear is exceedingly attractive. The worsteds prevail, although woolen serges are also well represented.

The new suitings are mainly of a loose weave, and show pretty combinations of colorings and dainty designs of small checks, narrow stripes and snowflake effects.

Homespun and hopsacking, though rather heavy looking, are really light in weight, and it is predicted that these fabrics will be greatly favored for spring and early summer wear. They shed dust easily and are just the right weight.

CHEESE BALLS.

To one cupful of grated cheese add half a cupful of grated bread crumbs, five drops of Worcester sauce and one egg well beaten. Mix all well together and roll into balls, says Woman's Life. Place in a wire basket, and just before time to serve them plunge the basket in boiling lard. Cook a delicate brown

BOWLERS BREAK FEW RECORDS IN A BATTLE

Centlivres Cut in for Second High and Farnan Wins Out.

Brunswick bowlers cut in for some records in the games bowled yesterday on account of postponements last week and a couple of records went by, the boards when the Centlivres bunched pins in the second game and with a total of 1009 picked off the second high score of the season.

Frank Farnan rolled the best average of the season for three games with 226, which is a couple of pins better than the record held by Fred Reynolds. The Centlivres reorganized and took on a couple of new men and they made good from the start, although they had not been doing much bowling this winter. There is still one postponement in the first league which will be taken care of this week and the interruptions incidental to holiday week will have been cleaned up. The Berghoffs were not up to form and with the exception of Farnan most of the men rolled below their general average. The scores:

GRANT TAKING TIME TO LOOK OVER GROUND

Has Not Yet Closed Deal for the Evansville Ball Franchise.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 10.—Aggie Grant is still here trying to make arrangements under which the men who wear Evansville ball uniforms next season will have to call on him for the slips on each pay day. He and Owner Arthur Gross had short conferences but failed to reach an agreement and postponed the matter until today.

Grant spent most of yesterday and Saturday looking over the city and was in conference with many of the business men. If he comes here he wants the hearty support of the ball fans and wanted to see how the sentiment was for him here. He was satisfied with his finding and said if Gross is able to make him a reasonable proposition he will purchase the team or at least a portion of the stock.

Ball fans of Evansville are anxious to see Grant locate here. They feel sure that he is well qualified to make a success of the Evansville team and would be the man to pull it out of the rut it held last season. He demonstrated his worth while manager of the South Bend team, and by fans who know, he is considered one of the brainiest managers in the circuit. His acquisition by Evansville would be a step in the right direction towards building up the team for 1910.

Grant expects to stay in Evansville a day or two. He held a conference with Owner Gross today and expected to come to terms. The fact that Evansville is carrying on a boosting movement that is liable to bring more men to the city and increase the probable attendance at ball games is being given grave consideration by the former South Bend manager. The prospects for good attendance in 1910 are more favorable than they ever were but Grant, besides being a ball player and a manager is a business man and doesn't intend paying more for the stock than it is worth. He is on the market and unless he secures the local team will probably land in some other Central league city.

SCHREIBER TO DENVER.

Jack Hendricks Closes Deal for Terre Haute Pitcher.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 10.—Already the pruning knife has been brought into commission by the Indianapolis Baseball club, and Manager Carr has begun to dispose of his surplus talent. "Barney" Schreiber is the first of the live ones to go. Schreiber has been sold to the Denver club in the Western league. Manager Carr cooked up a deal with Jack Hendricks, the Denver club's manager, at the American association meeting in Chicago.

BATTLER TAKES ON LANG.

Nelson Will Meet Eddie Lang at Memphis Next Week.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 10.—Lightweight Champion Battling Nelson is to fight, and at an early date. Coming on top of the announcement that his match with Ad Wolgast has been clinched for a San Francisco club on February 22 came another last night that Bat had signed to fight Eddie Lang of Chicago, at Memphis on the night of January 21.

Tommy Ryan, manager and matchmaker of the Memphis club, met Nelson yesterday and after a conference the Dane accepted the terms offered. The boys are scheduled to fight eight rounds and will weigh in at 133 pounds ringside.

ALDERMAN SHOWS WELL.

Fifth Among Pitchers of the Western Association.

"Dal" Alderman, who came here from Pittsburg after he had been drafted from Springfield and who failed to make good here a couple of years ago because he had no control, is fifth among the pitchers of the Western association with an average of .688 in thirty-two games. He had plenty of speed and a grand curve, but he couldn't get them over. Pendry, who went from Zanesville to Omaha last spring, hit .279 in 144 games and Magg, formerly with Wheeling, batted .262 for Denver. Ira Bendon has a record of .249 at Denver.

TOOLEY WITH CUBS.

Bert Tooley, formerly with the Fort Wayne team and who played last year at Kalamazoo, is to have a try-out with the Cubs in the spring.

MILLER NOT A HOLD-OUT.

Pirate Infielder Has Not Received a Contract for 1910.

Pittsburg, Jan. 10.—President Dreyfuss of the Pittsburg National league baseball club today denied that Second Baseman Jack Miller of last season's world champion Pirate aggregation is a "hold-out." "I have not as yet forwarded Miller's contract," said President Dreyfuss, "so Miller can not hold out when he has not been asked to play as yet."

The statement of the head of the Pittsburg baseball club discredits the reports from the east that Miller will not play with the Pirate team this year unless his salary is boosted.

S.S.S. CURES CHRONIC ULCERS

There is nothing that causes more worry and discomfort than a chronic, festering ulcer. As it lingers, slowly eating into the tissues and surrounding flesh, and by its tendency to grow worse in every way, it suggests the possibility of being cancerous in its nature. Efforts to heal the ulcer by means of salves, washes, lotions, etc., always result in failure, because such treatment can have no possible effect on the blood where the impurities and morbid matters form, and are carried thorugh the circulation to the place, to keep it open, irritated and diseased. The impurities in the blood must be removed before the healing process can begin. S.S.S. goes to the fountain-head of the trouble, and drives out the germ-producing poisons and morbid impurities which keep the ulcer open. Then as this rich, purified blood is carried to the diseased place the healing commences, the inflammation gradually leaves, the discharge ceases, new tissue and healthy flesh are formed, and soon the sore is permanently cured because the source has been destroyed. S.S.S. does not make a surface cure, but by supplying the blood with healthful, tissue-building properties it begins at the bottom and causes the flesh at the diseased spot to firmly and permanently knit together, and the place is left sound and well. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

SHOP AND RAIL

Day's Happenings in the Industrial World

HE HAD A SAD HOME COMING

Frank Treuchet Fell and Broke Leg En Route from Depot.

HAD BEEN AWAY OVER TWO MONTHS

Some Changes at Pennsy Round House—Shop and Rail.

Frank Treuchet, of Buchanan street, fell on the icy walks Saturday night and sustained a fracture of the right leg, a few inches above the ankle. Mr. Treuchet is an erector for the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company and for several weeks has been engaged in installing gas making machinery and tanks at DeKalb, Ill., where the Kerr Murray company is putting in a big plant. He came home Saturday night for a short visit with his folks, expecting to return to DeKalb today, and en route from the depot to his home, met with the accident.

HONORED THEIR FRIEND.

Several of the Pennsylvania and Bass Foundry and Machine company officials and office men paid their respects to Vice President C. T. Strawbridge, of the Bass company, and at the same time had "the night of their lives," to use the expression of one of the guests, when they gave that gentleman a surprise last Saturday evening in the celebration of the anniversary of his birth. Mr. Strawbridge did not know in advance of the coming of the guests, but one who originated the plan sent word to Mrs. Strawbridge of their intentions and she had in readiness a feast, which was served at 11 o'clock. The majority of the guests are members of the Masonic fraternity and they presented Mr. Strawbridge with a handsome Shriners' pin, he being a member of that branch of Masonry. In the party at the dinner table were R. J. Fisher, William Slater, P. F. Merritt, H. J. Yergy, J. A. Graham, Adam LaMar, J. H. Hobrock, H. M. Diehl, W. L. Witt, P. H. Wersteln and Frank A. Ausman.

TIN AND STEEL WORKERS.

The local branch of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Tin and Steel Workers held its annual election at the hall in the Aldine block Saturday night and transacted some other business of importance to the union. The election resulted in the selection of the following officers:

President—Benjamin Davis.
Vice President—William Tullis.
Recording Secretary—John Dornick.
Financial Secretary—James Murphy.
Treasurer—James Ferguson.
Outside Guide—Bert Quinn.
Inside Guide—Elmer Lore.
Trustees—Emmett Ellison, George Phipps and Andrew O'Mella.

B. R. T. TO HAVE FAIR.

Fort Wayne lodge, No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, will have a three days' fair in the Minuet building some time in April, probably commencing on the 21st. It is proposed to give four elegant prizes in the contests, the first to be a $100 ring, the second a $50 watch, the third a $15 bracelet and the fourth a $10 umbrella. This fair will take the place of the annual ball and there will also be dancing one or two of the evenings. The committee to work up the affair is composed of C. M. Preble, C. Burbage, George Bradley, W. E. Ferguson, J. W. Galloway, E. T. Stinel and Ed Grimm.

ROUND HOUSE OFFICE CHANGE.

Because of failing health, Theodore Dobler has asked to be relieved from the work of engine dispatching at the Pennsylvania round house office and given lighter work. He has, in accordance with this wish, been transferred to the round house store room and has been succeeded as dispatcher by Ed T. Conway. Mr. Dobler commenced work at the round house December 15, 1883, and has been there ever since, twenty-one years of his service being in the capacity of clerk and engine dispatcher. Mr. Conway became night clerk at the round house in 1902. He was previously employed as a caller.

INSTALLED NEW MACHINE.

One of the most recently improved screw and bolt making machines of the day was installed in the Pennsylvania machine shop this morning and will soon be in operation. This labor saver is an automatic multiple spindle screw machine capable of working upon four pieces at once, the limit of time on each being determined by the time it takes to make the largest piece. This is one of the greatest labor saving turret machines in existence and the one installed here today was on exhibition at the convention of the Master Mechanics' association at Atlantic City last summer.

TO OPEN SCHOOL THIS WEEK.

Capt. H. M. Diehl will open air brake school this week at the Pennsylvania shops. His instruction car will be stationed just south of the power plant on Lafayette street, from whence it will get power to operate the system of brakes it is fitted with. It is now two years since the car was stationed there for instruction purposes. All entitled to instructions in this line are expected to join the classes.

VERY BUSY ON PENNSY ROAD.

The Pennsylvania is getting all the business it can handle this winter and as a result every department of the shops, round house and road service, is hustling. At the round house from 115 to 120 engines are handled every twenty-four hours. Notwithstanding this immense business, it is being handled without congestion, though trains are sometimes a little delayed in getting through the yards.

OLD SHOPMAN VERY SICK.

Henry Dammeyer, who passed the age limit and went on the Pennsylvania pension list five or six years ago, is very sick at his home. Mr. Dammeyer worked at the blacksmith shop over a third of a century and when compelled to retire on account of the rules he was a stout, hearty man.

ROCK ISLAND MEN GO EAST.

A party of Rock Island officials, headed by F. O. Melcher, second vice president, occupied a private car on Pennsylvania train No. 16, which passed through the city shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon. They are en route to Washington.

HAD NOSE INJURED.

George J. Reiber, who operates the wheel press in the Pennsylvania car machine shop, was struck on the nose by the hook of the air hoist this morning and painfully hurt. Some of the bones were broken. After receiving attention from the company's surgeon, Mr. Reiber resumed work.

PUTTING ON NEW MEN.

The car department of the Pennsylvania shops is having more work than it can handle and is adding to the working force whenever opportunity is given. A number of men have recently been employed at the east car shops and in the lumber yards.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

M. B. Didion, W. P. Burns and William Royhans, Pennsylvania round house machinists, are sick and off duty.

W. A. Miller, Oliver Harper, A. Applegger, William Smith and Clayton De-Witte are new helpers at the Wabash shops.

Machinist William Lerch has recovered from an attack of the grip and this morning resumed work at the Pennsylvania shops.

Earl Shears, who came here recently from Xenia, Ohio, has taken employment as a boilermakers' helper with the Pennsylvania.

C. A. Hall, machine shop foreman of the Pennsylvania's Allegheny shops, is here to consult the officials on matters of business.

G. A. Springer, a boilermaker's helper, resigned a position at the Pennsylvania shops this morning to take a position at the Electric works.

H. H. Majors and G. W. Adams, Pennsylvania pipefitters, went to Dola, this morning to do some work on the track water tank the company will soon put in operation.

Conductor A. L. Blauvelt and Brakeman F. E. Guenther, of the Pennsylvania, are off duty, the former on account of an accident and the brakeman on account of sickness.

There was little doing in the car building department of the Pennsylvania shops today, most of the men being off to attend the funeral of their late comrade, H. J. Meyers.

W. H. Hanke, formerly a helper in the Pennsylvania erecting shop, has gone to the machine shop in the capacity of an apprentice. He succeeds A. W. Arter, who has been called to the draughting department.

Pipefitter J. Waldman, who had been sick a week, resumed work at the shops this morning. H. Witte, a truck builder, also reported for duty this morning. Frank Vestana, of the machine shop, also reported for work after a week's illness.

H. W. Raub, who had a knee hurt three weeks ago; J. Redermund, who had a foot hurt three weeks ago; J. J. Backes and F. J. Crukas, who were sick a week or more, resumed work in the Pennsylvania boiler shop this morning.

Conductor Theodore Biey, who has charge of the shop switching crew of the Pennsylvania, is undergoing a new experience. He is sick with rheumatism and is off duty for the first time on account of sickness for a number of years.

Heavy travel eastbound yesterday created a necessity for two sections of the Manhattan limited, on the Pennsylvania, yesterday afternoon. A number of the passengers were commission merchants from Chicago and other cities, who are going to Washington to attend a convention.

Passenger Conductor Charles Bell, of the Nickel Plate, passed through the city today, en route to Oklahoma, where he will spend three or four weeks hunting and fishing. During Mr. Bell's absence his runs on trains 3 and 3 will be taken by Conductor C. W. Zeigler.

Ralph Peters, president of the Long Island railroad, has prepared a statement showing that forty minutes will be saved between Long Island points and New York city by the operation of trains through the East River tunnel into the Pennsylvania station at Thirty-third and Seventh avenue.

The fourteen firemen recently promoted to engineers on the Pennsylvania have made their trial trips and are now allowed to take trains out or handle yard engines without being accompanied by instructors. Ten of these men are employed in the road service and four of them are yard engineers.

C. H. Tweedy, a cabinetmaker at the Pennsylvania shops, is again on the sick list. He had been sick several weeks and reported for duty last Thursday, but he has suffered a relapse. A. J. Schirmeyer, who was taken ill December 23, was able to resume work at the car machine shop this morning.

Tomorrow Mrs. Gilbert, wife of Blacksmith Thomas Gilbert, will be removed from Hope hospital to her home, 536 Masterson avenue. She was operated upon at the hospital four and a half months ago and for a time it was feared she would not recover. But she improved after several weeks and is now believed to be on the road to complete recovery.

The Pennsylvania and other railroads in Pennsylvania are enforcing the new age law in regard to minors, and since Jan. 1 they have been busy rearranging their forces. The new law provides that no one under 18 years of age shall be employed in any capacity where he will have to be around trains or in any way close to engines, machinery, etc. Persons under 18, therefore, can only be employed in clerical positions, with few exceptions.

At one time a windstorm unroofed the school in District No. 1 and before the building could be used $233 has been expended there in repairs. All the yards were graded, cinder walks provided and wells cleaned and repaired at all the schools.

Why Does Not The Stomach Digest Itself?

An Unsolved Problem, Which Has Puzzled Physicians of All Schools.

A Trial Package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Sent Free.

There seems to be no logical reason why the stomach should not digest itself when we consider the fact that it secretes digestive fluids and acids which are powerful enough to disintegrate and digest meats, eggs, fruits, cereals, vegetables and other forms of food taken into it.

In animals which were killed while in full digestion the stomach has undergone complete self-digestion after death, when the body was kept warm; and in human beings who have died suddenly, while digestion was going on, it was found at the autopsy that not only had the stomach been digested, but also the liver, pancreas, spleen, and portions of the intestines.

The question naturally presents itself, "What protects the stomach from self-digestion during life?" Dr. Hunter declared that the "principle of life" in living things protected this organ from being digested by its own fluids, but Dr. Barnard successfully demonstrated that the hind legs of a living frog, when introduced through a fistula or artificial opening into the stomach of a dog, undergoes complete digestion, and Dr. Pavy, through similar experience, found that the same was true of a rabbit's ear.

While the normal stomach is immune from self-digestion, there are many cases on record, however, in which a long-standing gastritis, and perverted digestion, has completely digested or eaten away the mucous membrane lining of the stomach, and in some instances has engendered gastric ulcer, which ate its way clear through the stomach wall, and caused a fatal peritonitis.

In all cases of perverted function of the stomach, which manifests itself by the numerous well-known symptoms of indigestion and dyspepsia, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act as a corrective, restoring it to a normal condition, toning up the secretory glands, as well as the lacteal glands, which absorb the food, and at the same time assisting the stomach in the process of digestion, and preventing all possibility of such conditions arising as will cause perverted function, gastritis, gastric ulcer, or the eating away of the mucous membrane of the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are exceedingly powerful digestives, a single grain being sufficient to digest 3,000 grains of food, including meats, vegetables, cereals, etc. They digest albumenous and starchy foods equally well. Whenever the stomach is in a weakened condition, and so lacking in tone, that it furnishes an insufficient amount of gastric juice, such symptoms as heartburn, biliousness, headache, belching of gas and sour eructations are sure to appear, and make one feel generally miserable.

Such symptoms can, however, be overcome and done away with at once. Simply take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and forget all about your digestive troubles. They do their work promptly and thoroughly, every particle of food being completely digested, and fermentation, decomposition, and flatulence and heaviness in stomach after eating, relieved and cured. Purchase a box from your druggist today, price 50 cents. Also send us your name and address for free sample. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

COAL FAMINE CLOSES SCHOOL.

Ohio University Forced to Shut Down by Fuel Shortage.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 10.—Ohio state university was compelled to close today in all departments except one, because of the cold weather and the lack of coal to keep the furnaces going. Two thousand students are thus excused from their recitations. Reports from central Ohio today show stock that is not sheltered suffering from the cold. There was a heavy fog early today and this froze on the stock. The thermometer showed three below zero today.

Saturday was the greatest day in the history of our store. We sold more suits and overcoats than we have sold in any one day before. We are selling fine silk lined overcoats at the price of a common coat. Read ad on page five.

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 10.—Grain prices were slightly lower in the early trades here today and provisions also declined in response to lower prices for live hogs. Contrary to the course of the other futures the prices of the May delivery advanced at the outset. Opening prices on the May delivery advanced at the outset to ⅜c. The range in the first hour showed a spread of from ¾c to ⅞c. May opened at $1.13⅝ to $1.14, a shade to ⅜@½c higher than Saturday's close and after the temporary advance dropped to $1.13⅜.

Relatively larger offerings in the corn pit induced by more favorable weather conditions eased the price at the outset, all futures on the opening ranging from a shade to ⅜c lower than Saturday's close. May opened at ⅜c to ⅝c lower than Saturday's close.

Oats exhibited a relatively firmer tone than the other grains, stimulated by a good demand for the cash article. May opened at 47¾c to 47½c, ⅛c to ⅜c lower than Saturday.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Jan. 10.—Opening prices of stocks advanced as a rule, but the gains were moderate and the speculative interest apparently was languid. Colorado & Southern, United States Express and International Harvester rose 1 and National Railways of Mexico first preferred ¾. Philadelphia Company declined 1 point.

The market became heavy for an interval when United States Steel reacted a point to 88¼. Large fractional losses were also registered in all of the active stocks before the list turned upward. Large buying orders were distributed for Reading and Rock Island and when they responded with an advance to a point above last week's closing, the whole market moved up briskly.

The drifting movement of prices turned downward again. St. Paul lost a point, the selling was quiet and the whole market was dull and narrow. American Beet Sugar rose 1¾. Bonds were steady.

Increased selling of Union Pacific and United States Steel which depressed them 1 point under Saturday's closing had a weakening effect on the whole market, but the general offerings were light. United States Express was marked up 6 points and International Paper preferred 1 point.

United States Express climbed 3 and 4 points between sales until it reached 143, a gain of 21 points since Saturday. The rest of the market was lifeless and uninteresting. American Sugar rose a point.

The market closed weak and active. Stocks were freely supplied at concessions and the whole list yielded sharply. The supreme court decision sustaining the interstate commerce commission was an influence. St. Paul dropped 2⅞, the preferred, Union Pacific, Central Railroad of New Jersey and Consolidated Gas 2, Southern Pacific and New York Central 1¾, and United States Steel 1½. United States Express, after rising 23 points, reacted 8. American Steel Foundry gained 1¾.

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Black Duck, Minn.—"About a year ago I wrote you that I was sick and could not do any of my housework. My sickness was called Retroflexion. When I would sit down I felt as if I could not get up. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and did just as you told me and now I am perfectly cured, and have a big baby boy."—Mrs. ANNA ANDERSON, Box 19, Black Duck, Minn.

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Catarrh wrecks voice and complexion, destroys the hearing, taste and smell. But there's worse suffering and danger coming, as neglect will tell. 'Tis consumption, grim and awful, or dire asthma's strangling breath, and catarrh's unheeding victim finds himself confronting death.
